John Keech

On 10.3.1851, J. K. of Camden East, L. & A. Co ("ae 70") applied for bounty lands, * on 21.4.1855 he applied for additional bounty land (Page 71")

16.11.1872. Pension application of Julia Keech, ae. 75, of Sheffield, L & A Co (post office Centreville) widow of John Keech. Her husband served in the New York Militia from 3 Sept to 16 Nov 1814. At that time, they were residents of Western, Oneida Co. She stated that they were married 14.7.1814, at Western, N.Y. & that her maiden name was Julia Cronch. Her husband died 27.1.1864 at Camden East. As a larger pension was granted to widows who had married before 1815, several affidavits were obtained to help substantiate that John & Julia were married in 1814.

Affidavit of Mrs Anna Davy aged 63, wife of Henry Davy of Enterprise, dau. of Chas & Elenor Reynolds of Western Oneida Co N.Y. dated 12.8.1875.

Affidavit of Benj. Reynolds, ae 62, of Portland Disp., Fontenay Co., dated 22 Aug 1875. Lived as a child at Western Oneida Co N.Y. & knew Julia wife of John Keech.

Affidavit of Albert Keech of Fredericksburgh, Addington Co. (P.O. Napereau) dated 31.12.1877, that he remembered during the War of 1812, three of his brothers, one of whom was John, went to Sachett's Harbor, & that in the same group was his father, a 70 yr old veteran of the Revolutionary War.

Some U.S. War of 1812 Pensioners in Ontario by Thomas B. Wilson

John Keech

On March 10, 1851, John Keech of Camden East, Lennox & Addington County ("aged 70") applied for bounty lands, and on April 21, 1855, he applied for additional bounty land ("aged 71").

Nov 16, 1872. Pension application of Julia Keech, aged 75, of Sheffield, County of Lennox & Addington (Post office, Centreville), widow of John Keech. Her husband served in the New York Militia from 3 September to 16 November 1814. At the time, they were residents of Western, Oneida County. She stated that they were married July 14, 1814 at Western, N. Y., and that her maiden name was Julia Crouch. Her husband died Jan. 27, 1864 in Camden East. As a larger pension was granted to widows who had married before 1815, several affidavits were obtained to help substantiate that John and Julia were married in 1814.

Affidavits of Mrs Anna Reynolds, aged 63, wife of Henry Davy, and Benjamin Reynolds, aged 67, that they knew her as Mrs. Keech.

Dec. 31, 1877. Affidavit of Albert Keech of Fredericksburgh, Addington County (post office Nepanee). He remembered that during the War of 1812 three of his brothers, one of whom was John Keech, went to Sackett's Harbor; that in the same group were seventy year old Revolutionary War soldiers, one of whom was his father. On September 16, 1879,

Albert made a second affidavit. He was still a resident of Fredricksburgh, but the affidavit was made in Jefferson County, N.Y., where he was visiting a son and also a brother. He stated that he was a brother of John Kech, and that he was aged 13 at the time of his brother's marriage and so believes that it occurred in 1813 or 1814.

Feb 25, 1881. Affidavit of Mrs. Marcia Hart, aged 81, of Andrusburgh, Prince Edward County (post office, Rossmore). She has known John and Julia Kech from her earliest recollection; she was reared in Western, Oneida County, N.Y. She was present at the house of the father of John Kech, viz: James Kech, and she witnessed the marriage of John and Julia, which occurred on 4th July either 1813 or 1814, but she believes the latter. Among those present at the said marriage were: Nancy Haynes, sister of the deponent, who afterward became the wife of Albert Kech, brother of the said John Kech; Calvin Keyes who, with the above Nancy, stood up at the wedding; John Turklot and Debbie his wife the said Debbie being a sister of the claimant (Julia); Van Rensselaer Haynes; Olee Keyes who, if now living, is the widow Haynes; also Alanson Keyes. She added that among those who served with John Kech was Daniel Prosser who afterwards became the husband of the deponent but who has been dead for many years so that she married afterward William Hart who is also now dead. With them also went George Prosser, a brother of the said Daniel.

In 1883 the post office address of Julia Kech was Trafford, a village in Sheffield Township, Seneca & Addison County.
